No. $\frac{3209}{7}$ OF 1903.

FROM

H. G. GELL, ESQUIRE,
Acting Commissioner of Police, Bombay;

To

THE HON'BLE MR. S. W. EDGERLEY, C.I.E., I.C.S.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department,
Bombay.

Police Commissioner's Office,
Bombay, 15th April 1903.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith the Annual Report on the working of the Bombay City Police for the year 1902, together with the usual statements. I also append a statement showing the state of juvenile crime in the City of Bombay in accordance with the instructions of Government contained in their letter No. 6376, dated the 1st October 1901.

2. I was in charge of the office of the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, with Mr. J. Crummy as Deputy Commissioner throughout the year.

CRIME.

3. There were 31,738 cognizable offences during the year, of which 26,286 were reported to the Police, and 5,452 to the Magistrates direct. There were also 45 cases pending from the preceding year, making a total of 31,783 cases for disposal. This shows an increase of 8,212 cases as compared with the figures for the year 1901. This increase is entirely due to offences under the local Acts, the reasons for which are given later on in the report.

4. In addition to the cognizable crime, there were also 8,657 non-cognizable offences reported to the Magistrates, which makes a total of 40,395 as against 31,775 in 1901, showing an increase of 8,620 as compared with the figures for the preceding year.

5. The following table shows broadly the details of reported crime—both cognizable and non-cognizable—for 1901 and 1902 under each class comparatively :—

Police cognizable cases, all classes, including undetected and excluded cases.

6. The total number of cognizable cases reported to the Police or taken up by them was, under all classes, 26,286 as against 18,241 in the previous year. Added to these, 46 cases pending from the preceding year, the total number of offences dealt with during the year under report was 26,332. Of this number, 24,343 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 92·44 as compared with 88·79 for the preceding year. Cases under the Indian Penal Code numbered 4,852 as against 5,447 in 1901. Taking 30 cases from the previous year, the total number of cases dealt with was 4,882. Of this number, 3,511 cases ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 71·91 as compared with 70·22 for the preceding year. Under the head of Class VI and Miscellaneous, there were 21,434 offences as against 12,793 in the previous year, and when 16 cases pending from the preceding year are added, the total number of cases dealt with was 21,450. Of this number, 20,832 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·11 as against 96·74 in the year preceding.

7. Excluded cases numbered 625, of which 362 were under the Indian Penal Code and 263 under Class VI and Miscellaneous offences. Of the excluded cases 48 were declared to be mistakes of fact, 64 to be non-cognizable, 154 to be false, 45 were compounded and 18 withdrawn, 55 were transferred, 194 were struck off, accused not having responded to their recognizance, and 47 were similarly dealt with for various other reasons.

Maliciously false cases.

8. As compared with the year 1901, the year under report shows an increase of 13 maliciously false cases. Out of 122 such cases, 115 were decided by Magistrates to be vexatious complaints and under Section 553, Criminal Procedure Code, compensation was awarded to the accused in all of these cases in sums ranging from Rs. 3 to Rs. 50. In one case the complainant was convicted and sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment and in one the Magistrate sanctioned the prosecution for a false complaint, but the accused concerned, took no proceedings against the complainant.

Real cases.

9. Deducting "excluded" cases and including those pending from the previous year, the total amount of real crime dealt with during the year under report, was 25,707 as compared with 17,779 in the year 1901. Of this number, 24,279 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 94·44 as against 91·16 in the year preceding. The total number of real cases under the Indian Penal Code including 30 from the previous year, was 4,520. Of this number, 3,448 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 76·28 as against 74·62 in the previous year. Including 16 cases from the previous year, the total number of real cases under Class VI and Miscellaneous offences was 21,187 as against 12,669 in 1901. Of this number, 20,831 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 98·07 as compared with 97·87 in the previous year.

Real and false cases and their proportion to cases reported, to population and to the Police.

10. The total number of real and false cases of all descriptions including those from the previous year, was 25,707 and 625, respectively, as against 17,799 and 495 in the preceding year. The proportion of true crime to population was as one to 30·18 as against one to 45·60 in 1901, and that of crime to Police was as 11·74 to one as compared with 7·98 in the year 1901. These changes are due to the greater number of cases dealt with under Class VI and Miscellaneous and should not therefore be taken to indicate else than that the Police were more vigilant.

Result of trial by classes.

11. Class I—Fifty-four offences were reported in this class as against an equal number in the previous year. The offence of "Personating a Public Servant" (Serial No. 7) shows a slight decrease. In all these cases townsmen were arrested and convicted for personating Policemen for the purpose of extorting money from poor people and I am glad to be able to say that in those cases in which convictions were obtained, the Magistrates dealt with the accused in a highly satisfactory manner. Out of 54 cases reported during the year, 43 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 79·62 as against 81·48 in the previous year.

12. Class II.—Three hundred and seventy offences are reported in this class as against 472 in the previous year, showing a decrease of 102 offences. This decrease is noticeable principally under "Attempt to murder," "Hurt by dangerous weapons," "Selling, &c., a minor for prostitution," and "Criminal force to public servant." The slight increase in cases of murder may be accounted for by the fact that one case, in which the accused murdered three persons, has been shown on the returns as three different cases, and one belonged to Cutch. Out of the 381 cases including 11 from the previous year, 239 resulted in conviction giving a percentage of 62·72 as against 70·98 in the preceding year. The accused in both the cases shown as pending at the close of the year 1901, against Serial Nos. 13 and 18 of Statement A, Part III, have been classified under, and results shown against, Serial No. 23 (Hurt by dangerous weapons), they having been acquitted at the Sessions on that charge.

13. Class III.—This class also shows a decrease of 120 cases over the previous year, which is mainly observable under the heads of Robbery, House-breaking (Serial No. 36) and House-trespass (Serial No. 37). Out of 410 cases including one from the previous year, 186 resulted in conviction giving a percentage of 45·36 as against 47·95 in 1901. Four cases of Dacoity implicating 13 persons appear on the return, but being mofussil cases they were transferred to their respective districts.

14. Class IV.—The number of cases in this class, viz. 23, shows a decrease of 28 as compared with the previous year. Under both the Serial Nos. 40 and 41, viz., Wrongful restraint and confinement and Rash act causing hurt or endangering life, there is a decrease of 14 cases each.

15. Class V.—In this class there were 3,996 cases as against 4,341 in the year previous, showing a decrease of 345 cases. The decrease falls under "Theft," "Criminal breach of trust," and "Criminal or House-trespass." Against these, there is an increase under "Lurking house-trespass" and "Receiving stolen property," including 18 cases from the previous year, 4,014 cases were dealt with. Of this number 3,033 resulted in conviction giving a percentage of 75·56 as against 72·70 in 1901. The decrease in "Theft" cases of 374 and the improvement in the results obtained in them are satisfactory. There were 273 cases of receiving stolen property as against 216 in the previous year, showing an increase of 57. This increase may be considered as a healthy sign as regards the working of the Police and the results obtained in them are generally satisfactory. There were 310 cases of Criminal Breach of Trust as against 328 in the previous year. Of these 237 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 76·45 as against 72·56 in the year 1901. As regards Theft by a servant (Section 381, Indian Penal Code) and Criminal Breach of Trust, I may remark that it is difficult for the Police either to detect the offenders or to recover the property in cases of this kind, as they are committed by domestic servants who are mostly picked up from the streets and are entrusted with the care of property without anything being known or ascertained about their antecedents or any kind of control or supervision being exercised over them, and no sooner are they in possession of such property than they abscond and are scarcely, if ever, traced. A few cases of the kind involving a considerable amount of property mar the percentage.

16. Class VI.—In this class there were 397 offences as against 465 in the year previous, showing a decrease of 68 cases. The decrease is observable under the head of Gambling which shows a decrease of 113 cases as compared with the figures for the year 1901. The decrease is partly due to Magistrates flogging and imprisoning gamblers. Against this there is an increase under the head of Public and Local Nuisances (Serial No. 57). Out of 398 cases in this class including one pending case from the previous year, 364 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 91·45 as against 91·64 in the preceding year. Out of 196 cases of gambling 188 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 95·91 as against 94·86 in 1901. Under the head of Vagrancy and Bad Character (Serial No. 50) are included 31 cases of Bad Character as against 23 in the previous year, 27 of which resulted in conviction. In the 54 cases under the Vagrancy Act 55 European Vagrants were placed before the Magistracy and all were convicted.

17. Miscellaneous Offences.—Under this head there were 21,037 offences as against 12,328, showing a large increase of 8,709. The increase under each head is as follows:—

|---|---|
| Possession of stolen property ... ... ... ... | 14 |
| Public Conveyance Act ... ... ... ... | 160 |
| Police Acts ... ... ... ... ... | 8,508 |
| Prevention of Cruelty to animals ... ... ... | 236 |
| Tobacco Act ... ... ... ... ... | 1 |
| Criminal Tribes Act ... ... ... ... | 38 |

Against the above there was a decrease under the following heads:—

|---|---|
| Drunkenness ... ... ... ... ... | 175 |
| Assaulting a Policeman ... ... ... ... | 13 |
| Merchant Seaman's Amendment Act ... ... ... | 7 |
| A'bkári Act ... ... ... ... ... | 6 |
| Indian Ports Act ... ... ... ... ... | 18 |
| Municipal Act ... ... ... ... ... | 18 |
| Prisons Act ... ... ... ... ... | 2 |
| Post Office Act ... ... ... ... ... | 4 |
| Jails Act ... ... ... ... ... | 1 |
| Native Passenger Ships' Act ... ... ... ... | 4 |

Of the 21,037 offences reported under this head plus 15 that were pending from the previous year, 20,462 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·29 as against 97·07 in the year previous. The large increase in the total number of offences under this class is chiefly observable under the Police Acts, under which the number is nearly double that of the preceding year. This increase speaks well for the manner in which the Police attend to street nuisances. The increase of 160 cases under the Public Conveyance Act is due to the increase in the number of Public Conveyances, viz., 783 licensed during the year. Under "Possession of Stolen Property" (Section 35 of Act XIII of 1856 and Section 114 of Act IV of 1902) there were 218 cases against 204 in 1901, showing an increase of 14 offences. Of the 218 cases 170 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 77·98 as against 75·24 in the year preceding.

Serious Crime generally.

18. During the year under report there were 18 cases of Murder and Attempts at Murder as compared with 21 in the year 1901. Of these, 6 resulted in conviction, 2 in acquittal, 3 remained undetected, in 3 cases accused died, one was transferred and 3 were pending at the close of the year. In the 18 cases mentioned above are included the 2 cases of Infanticide, the details of which are given in the statement appended to the report showing the number of cases in which women were tried and convicted for the murder of their children.

Suicides.

19. I subjoin the usual statement of suicide cases compiled by the Coroner:—

| Offences. | Europeans. | | Jews. | | Native Christians. | | Mahomedans. | | Parsis. | | Hindus. | | Grand Total | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. | Male. | Female. |
| Suicides ... | 3 | ... | 1 | ... | 1 | 1 | 16 | 2 | 10 | 1 | 50 | 34 | 81 | 38 |

20. During the year under report the Coroner held 385 inquests as against 623 in the year 1901, showing a decrease of 238 inquests. The delegation of the powers of disposing of simple cases of accidental deaths to the Police Commissioner and his subordinate Police officers in charge of sections as per orders of Government contained in their letter No. 7376, dated the 18th November 1901, and Resolution No. 5819, dated the 16th September 1902, respectively, accounts for the decrease in the number of Coroner's inquests. Thus the cases disposed of by the Police under the authority of the above orders were as under :—

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Disposed of by the Commissioner of Police ... | ... | ... | 150 |
| Do. by Police officers in charge of Sections | ... | ... | 124 |
| | | Total ... | 274 |

and adding this number to the number of inquests held by the Coroner, it gives a total of 659 for the year, showing an increase of 36 as compared with those held by him in 1901.

Sessions cases and persons.

21. Altogether 56 cases were tried at the Sessions Court during the year 1902 as compared with 51 in 1901, showing an increase of 5 cases. Of these, 43 ended in conviction, 5 in acquittal and 8 in discharge. 66 persons were implicated in these cases, 51 of whom were convicted, 6 acquitted and 9 were discharged. The percentage of convictions being 76·78 as compared with 72·54 in the previous year.

Undetected cases.

22. The total number of cases remaining undetected at the end of the year under report was 739 as against 949 in the previous year. All these fell under the Indian Penal Code. The percentage of cases undetected to those sent up for trial works out at 16·34 as against 18·46 in the year 1901. Thus it will be seen that notwithstanding that crime under the Penal Code was less in 1902 than in 1901, the number of cases detected was greater in the former than in the latter year.

General results of working.

23. The general results of the working of the Police as judged from the foregoing paragraphs show—

(1st) an appreciable decrease in the number of offences under the Indian Penal Code;

(2nd) an increase in the number of cases taken up by the Police under the Police and Local Acts;

(3rd) a decrease in the number of convictions under Classes I, II, III, IV and VI;

(4th) an increase in the total number of convictions when all heads and VI and Miscellaneous are taken together.

The decrease in the number of offences under the Indian Penal Code is satisfactory, and I am of opinion that the sentences of flogging, in addition to imprisonment, which were, in the year under report, more freely inflicted, had something to do with it.

The only unsatisfactory feature is the decrease in the number of convictions as mentioned in the 3rd Head.

Action of the Police in dealing with offences under A'bkári, Salt, Customs and Opium Laws.

24. There were 68 cases reported under the A'bkári Act as against 74 in 1901. Of these, 58 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 85·29 as against 94·66 in the previous year. Under the Opium Act there were 3 offences as against 10 in the year 1901, all of which ended in conviction. One case was reported under the Salt Act and resulted in conviction. The return shows 2 cases under the Tobacco Act. The accused implicated in them were sent to the Collector of Customs, who punished them departmentally by the infliction of fines.

Persons in Police Cases.

25. During the year under report 29,685 persons were implicated in Police cases, including 57 persons from the previous year (columns 4 and 13 of Statement A, Part IV), of whom 28,006 were convicted, showing a percentage of 94·34 as compared with 93·01 in the year 1901. The percentage of persons tried to convicted works out at 95·80 as against 94·33 and of those tried to those acquitted at 3·41 as against 4·10 in 1901. The remaining persons were disposed of as under :—

998 were acquitted,
650 were otherwise disposed of,
5 died, and
26 were pending trial at the close of the year.

Released without trial.

26. Under Section 73 of Act IV of 1902, 14 persons were released by the Commissioner of Police as against 9 in 1901.

Disposed of by trial.

27. Under the Indian Penal Code offences, 4,807 persons were tried, of whom 4,064 were convicted, showing a percentage of 84·33 as compared with 84·28 in the previous year. The percentage of those tried to those acquitted was 10·73 as against 9·72 in 1901. Under Class VI and Miscellaneous offences, 24,749 persons were tried, of whom 23,942 were convicted, showing a percentage of 96·73 as compared with 97·71 in the year previous, the percentage of those tried to those acquitted being 1·94 as against 2·21 in the year 1901. With less crime to deal with under the Indian Penal Code, the number of persons arrested by the Police suo motu has dropped from 5,441 in 1901 to 4,895 in the year under report, a decrease proportionate to the fall in crime.

Cases.

28. There were 5,468 cases for disposal before the Magistrates, including 16 pending cases from the previous year. Of these, 4,946 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 90·45 as compared with 89·30 in the previous year. The details of the disposal of these cases are as follows :—

|---|---|
| Ended in conviction ... ... ... | 4,946 |
| „ acquittal or discharge ... ... ... | 380 |
| Struck out for want of appearance of complainants or accused ... ... ... ... | 72 |
| Pending at the close of the year ... ... | 6 |
| Either warrants could not be executed or the attendance of accused person was not obtained ... ... | 51 |
| Committed to the Sessions ... ... ... | 1 |
| Dismissed under Section 203, Criminal Procedure Code ... | 10 |
| Mistakes of Law or fact ... ... ... | 2 |
| | 5,468 |

Persons.

29. In connection with the above direct cases, process was issued against 5,566 persons, of whom 5,444 appeared before the Courts including 21 pending from the previous year, and 4,971 were convicted, showing a percentage of 91·31 as compared with 89·25 in the year 1901. The remaining 473 persons were disposed of as follows :—

|---|---|
| Acquitted or discharged ... ... ... ... | 466 |
| Pending at the close of the year ... ... ... ... | 6 |
| Committed to the Sessions ... ... ... ... | 1 |
| | 473 |

NON-COGNIZABLE CRIME.

Cases.

30. The total number of non-cognizable cases for disposal, including 37 from the previous year, was 8,694. Of this number, 3,833 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 44·08 as compared with 27·85 for the year 1901. The remaining 4,861 cases were disposed of as follows :—

2,061 ended in acquittal.
2,760 were dismissed without trial.
19 were pending at the close of the year.
20 in which process was outstanding and
1 in which proceedings were stayed.

4,861

Persons.

31. In connection with the above cases 10,915 persons appeared before the Courts including 52 from the previous year. These persons were disposed of as follows :—

4,123 were convicted.
3,160 were acquitted or discharged.
3,591 were discharged without trial.
31 were pending trial at the close of the year.
4 died before trial and
1 in whose case proceedings were stayed.

Castes of offenders.

32. The following statement shows the different castes to which the 45,966 offenders dealt with in both cognizable and non-cognizable cases belonged :—

| | Castes. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | Grand Total. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Europeans. | | Portuguese and Native Christians. | | Hindus. | | Mahomedans. | | Parsis. | | Others. | | Total. | | |

PROPERTY—STOLEN AND RECOVERED.

33. The total value of property alleged to have been stolen in Police cases occurring during the year under report, amounted to Rs. 2,82,753 as against Rs. 3,61,451 in the previous year, showing a decrease of Rs. 78,698. The value of property recovered amounted to Rs. 1,67,664, giving a percentage of 59·29 as against 42·04 in the year preceding. The number of cases in which property was stolen was 3,806 as against 4,339 in 1901, and that in which it was recovered was 3,154 as against 3,344 in the year previous, the percentage being 82·86 as against 76·83 in 1901. With regard to head "(b) In conjunction with receiving of stolen property," only columns III and VI of Statement C have been filled up this year in accordance with the instructions which accompanied Government Resolution No. 1300, dated the 22nd February 1899. From a glance at this statement it will be observed that the Police have worked well both as regards detection and recoveries in cases of "House-breaking," "Theft" and "Criminal breach of trust." In the matter of recoveries in cases of receiving stolen property, the Police were more successful than in the previous year. Although they were not so successful with regard to detection in cases of "Robbery," the recoveries show an improvement. The result as a whole is satisfactory as regards recoveries, the percentage showing to advantage. It is worth mentioning that the value of the property recovered by the Bombay Police in cases belonging to outside districts was Rs. 41,782 as, though it cannot be taken into account in calculating the percentage, it goes to show, nevertheless, the success of the City Police in an important branch of Police work.

ARMS, EXPLOSIVES AND PETROLEUM ACTS.

34. The following statement shows the number of licenses and permits issued under these Acts by the Commissioner of Police during the year 1902:—

| Serial No. | | 1901. | 1902. | Increase. | Decrease. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Permits to exempted persons ... ... | 2,225 | 2,208 | ... | 17 |

| | Total ... | 6,093 | 6,519 | 484 | 58 |

35. The following table shows to what sections of the community the license holders for the possession of arms belong:—

| Nationality. | Number of Licenses. | Fire-arms. | | | | Other arms. | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | Rifles. | Fowling piece. | Revolvers. | Pistols. | Air Guns. | Swords. | Sword-sticks. | Daggers. | Pattas. |

| Total ... | 495 | 74 | 383 | 120 | 31 | 6 | 134 | 24 | 47 | 2 |

36. There was one case under the Indian Arms Act (XI of 1878), in which the accused was convicted for possessing 40 rounds of ammunition without a license and was sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 25.

Explosives Act.

37. The following is a summary of licenses issued under the Explosives Act :—

|---|---|
| Manufacture, possession and sale ... ... | ... 18 |
| Possession and sale ... ... | ... 178 |
| Possession... ... ... | ... 8 |
| Sale ... ... ... | ... 3 |
| | 207 |

38. Two offences under this Act (IV of 1884) were reported, one for the possession and the other for manufacture of Explosives without licenses and in both cases the accused were convicted and sentenced to pay fines of Rs. 5 and 50, respectively.

39. Similarly two offences were reported under the Petroleum Act (VIII of 1899), both for transporting Kerosine oil without a license. Three persons were involved in them, of whom two were convicted and sentenced to pay fines of Rs. 20 and 25 each, respectively, while the third, who was charged for abetment, was acquitted. All the four cases related above were summons cases and appear on the Magisterial Return (Statement B, Part I.)

Pilgrims.

40. The restrictions which were imposed in past years upon the embarkation of Pilgrims at Bombay were removed by Government Resolution, General Department, No. 6216, dated the 11th November 1902, and in accordance therewith, 1,072 pilgrims left Bombay for the Hedjaz as detailed below :—

894 pilgrims obtained Passports from this office.
156 pilgrims obtained Informal passes from this office.
22 pilgrims obtained Passports from different British Civil and Political Officers in India.

1,072

One indigent Javanese pilgrim, who had found his way to the Porbandar Pilgrim Camp for the purpose of proceeding to the Hedjaz, was sent down to Bombay by the Superintendent of the Camp and was allowed to return to Java in accordance with the orders of Government contained in their Resolution, General Department, No. 1721, dated the 25th March 1902.

Sixty-nine Central Asian pilgrims, who had arrived in Bombay for the purpose of proceeding to the Hedjaz, but who were without means for their maintenance and their voyage to Jeddah, were under the orders of Government contained in the General Department letter No. 651, dated the 3rd February 1902, sent to their homes—50 vid Peshawar and 19 vid Ravalpindi—escorted by the Police and the Protector of Pilgrims.

During the year 3,376 pilgrims returned from the Hedjaz vid Bombay and were sent to their homes in different parts of India under the usual Police arrangements.

Mendicants.

41. During the year 1901, 8,113 subjects of Native States in Gujarát and Káthiáwár and 2,412 mendicants from British territories were deported from Bombay under Police arrangements.

Permits to South African Ports.

42. In accordance with Government Resolution, General Department, No. 7313, dated the 25th December 1901, this office issued permits to 990 persons to proceed to the South African Ports, viz.:—

522 to Boer ex-prisoners of war.
468 to persons of different nationalities.

Deportation of Foreigners.

43. Twenty-nine foreigners of the class of procurers were ordered by Government to remove themselves from British India under the provisions of Act III of 1864. Out of these, 15 complied with the orders served on them, while the remaining 14 left the City before the receipt of Government orders in this office. On the representation of the Resident at Hyderabad, Deccan, orders were issued by Government for the deportation of 14 Arabs. Out of these, 11 arrived in Bombay and were deported, one escaped from custody in Secunderabad and one was permitted to remain in Hyderabad by the Resident and one did not surrender to bail.

Fires.

44. During the year under report, 68 fires occurred in the City of Bombay causing a loss of property estimated at Rs. 3,47,514. The figures for 1901 were—66 fires and Rs. 11,96,549 estimated loss of property.

STREET ACCIDENTS.

45. During the year, 607 persons were injured and 38 were killed by being run over—4 by tram cars and 34 by other conveyances, showing a decrease of 9 in the number of those killed and also a decrease of 95 in those injured, as compared with the figures for the previous year. With reference to rash driving the figures show that the Mounted Police took up 269 cases during the year. This was irrespective of the cases dealt with by the Divisional Police.

CONVEYANCES.

46. The number of conveyances—public and private—during the year 1902 was as under:—

|---|---|
| Public conveyances ... ... ... | 8,130 |
| Private do. ... ... ... | 6,514 |
| Total ... | 14,644 |

This shows an increase of 783 in public and a decrease of 161 in private conveyances. The public conveyances consist of—

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Victorias | ... | ... | ... | 995 |
| Reckias | ... | ... | ... | 198 |
| Labour carts | ... | ... | ... | 6,937 |
| | | | Total ... | 8,130 |

HABITUAL OFFENDERS.

47. The working of the Criminal Identification Department under Inspector Priestley has been carried on with satisfactory results.

During the year under report, 2,638 references for identification of prisoners were made as against 1,975 in 1901, showing an increase of 663 references. 2,557 of these were from Bombay, 9 from the Presidency and 72 from other Presidencies. Of the 2,638 references 409 from Bombay, 3 from the Presidency and one from other Presidencies were traced in Bombay, making a total of 413 successful identifications. This shows the slight decrease of 21 as compared with the figures for 1901, and is due to the Presidency Districts not sending slips for record to this Department as before. During the same period 1,493 slips were despatched to the Bombay Presidency Bureau and 197 to other Presidencies as against 2,061 and 261, respectively, in the previous year. This decrease is due to a greater number of men being convicted under Chapters XII and XVII whose particulars were already on record.

During the year, 26 previously convicted persons were ordered to notify their addresses to the Police for a period ranging from 1 to 5 years. The Presidency Magistrates are now beginning to make use of the provisions of Section 565, Criminal Procedure Code. I do not think that the section can ever be very effective in Bombay, as so many of the persons convicted are homeless. For Bombay purposes it would be better if persons to whom the provisions of the section were applied, were obliged to report themselves once a month to the Superintendent of the Division in which they were last convicted.

BAD CHARACTERS.

48. Under Chapter VIII, Criminal Procedure Code, there were 31 cases including one pending from the previous year, involving an equal number of persons as against 23 in the year 1901, showing an increase of 7. Of the 31 persons 4 were acquitted, 3 furnished the requisite security for good behaviour and the remaining 24 were sent to Jail in default for terms varying from 6 months to a year.

CRIMINAL CLASSES AND INFLUX OF SUSPICIOUS FOREIGNERS.

49. The same remarks which were made in my report for the year 1901, will apply here.

Having received information of the residence in Bombay of a number of "Harness" absentees from the Ludhiana District, the District Superintendent of Police of that place paid a visit to Bombay, and with his assistance 38 members of this Criminal Tribe were arrested by the Bombay Police and sent back to Ludhiana.

POLICE ESTABLISHMENT.

50. The strength and distribution of the Force remained the same as that for the year 1901 with the exception of the addition of 8 men sanctioned as per Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 8163, dated 17th December 1901, with effect from 1st April 1902.

PUNISHMENTS.

51. One thousand and eighteen officers and men were punished during the year 1902 as against 927 in the year preceding. The details are as under :—

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Departmentally | ... | ... | ... | ... | 978 |
| Judicially | ... | ... | ... | ... | 12 |
| Dismissed | ... | ... | ... | ... | 28 |

The average number of dismissals for the last three years is 27. The increase of 91 in the number of punishments inflicted during the year does not show that the standard of efficiency of the Police has in any way deteriorated, as in the majority of cases, the punishments inflicted were for trifling and petty offences, whilst in some cases warnings were merely given.

Rewards.

52. Two hundred and seventeen officers and men were rewarded during the year, as compared with 220 rewarded during 1901. Of this number, 173 received promotions and 44 received money rewards. Besides the above, 519 men were rewarded by the issue of good service Tickets of varying value.

Health.

53. The number of admissions into Hospital was 1,910 as compared with 2,012 in 1901 and 2,023 in 1900. The daily average on the sick list in the Native constabulary was 41·29 as against 53·22 in the previous year. The daily average on the sick list amongst the European Police was ·59 as compared with 2·18 in 1901.

Casualties.

54. The total number of Casualties was 217 as compared with 237 in the preceding year. The different heads under which they were distributed are as under:—

|---|---|
| Deaths (including Sub-Inspectors Fleming, Smith and Grant) ... | 57 |
| Retirement on Pension or Gratuity (including Inspectors Framji Bhikaji and Montague) ... ... ... ... | 56 |
| Resignations ... ... ... ... ... | 69 |
| Discharges ... ... ... ... ... | 6 |
| Dismissals ... ... ... ... ... | 28 |
| Transferred ... ... ... ... ... | 1 |

The quinquennial average number of Casualties is 230. Out of the 57 deaths which took place during the year under report, 19 were due to plague as compared with 42 in 1901 and 16 in 1900.

Education.

55. One hundred and ninety officers (European and Native) and 532 men were able to read and write as against 186 officers and 431 men in the preceding year.

Recruiting.

56. The number of recruits enlisted was 210 as compared with 212 in the year 1901.

Resignations.

57. The number of persons who resigned during the year 1901 was 69 as compared with 70 in the preceding year.

Drill and Ball Practice.

58. These were kept up on the same line as reported last year.

Police Buildings.

59. There have been no changes to report this year in the number of Police Buildings except that an old wooden Chowki at the junction of Hornby and Band Stand Roads was replaced by a new one. Those in Police charge were repaired at a cost of Rs. 227-10-0 as compared with Rs. 436-4-0 in the preceding year.

Since the submission of my last report, the Improvement Trust have forwarded to Government in the General Department through this office for sanction two schemes for Police accommodation—one on their Wodehouse Road Plot and the other in their first Nágpáda Improvement Scheme.

INSPECTION.

Condition of Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition.

60. They were regularly inspected and kept in proper order.

Inspection of Arms and Ammunition Shops.

61. The number of license-holders under Rule 11 of the rules under the Indian Arms Act was 36 as against 37 in the year 1901 showing a decrease of one. His license was not renewed as he did not apply for it. The inspection of the arms and ammunition shops in the city as well as the premises of the various license-holders under the Explosives and Petroleum Acts, has been regularly carried out, and no discrepancies detected. The stock and sale registers of the dealers in arms and ammunition are well kept and are correct.

General efficiency and remarks.

62. The prominent features of the year's crime statistics and the work of the Bombay City Police have already been summarised in the foregoing paragraphs and, speaking generally, the Police have worked satisfactorily.

It is necessary to make mention of the successful proceedings taken by the Bombay Police during the year, against forgers in the city, in which 18 persons were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment at the Sessions.

Such cases are non-cognizable and it was therefore not incumbent on the Police to move regarding them, such action coming more properly within the province of the parties concerned. Understanding, however, that there were several men who had systematically made it their business, for years past, to forge wills, &c., and thinking that if not deterred they might cause irremediable injury to the public in the future, I considered it my duty to have as many of them as possible brought to justice with the results already stated.

The principal offenders connected with these cases were men of education and possessed in some instances of considerable means, they were able therefore to obtain the assistance of leading counsel.

It was only by means of the most persistent and indefatigable exertions that these cases were brought to a successful termination. The officer in charge, Inspector Sloane, deserves great credit for the skilful manner in which he worked them from start to finish.

There has been nothing to disturb the good relations existing between the Magistracy and the Police.

Mr. J. Crummy, Deputy Commissioner of Police, and Superintendent Sardár Mir Abdul Ali, Khán Bahádur, rendered me the greatest assistance on all occasions and I have great pleasure in bringing their services to the notice of Government.

I would also mention the names of the following Police officers as having conducted their duties throughout the year in a zealous and able manner :—

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Superintendent | McDermot. | Inspector | Stanford. |
| ,, | Ingram. | ,, | Barnet. |
| ,, | Grennan. | ,, | Walton. |
| ,, | Nolan. | ,, | Power. |
| ,, | Holdway. | ,, | Favel. |
| ,, | Roberts. | | |

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. G. GELL,

Acting Commissioner of Police.

Statement showing the number of cases in which women were tried and convicted for the murder of their children during the year 1902 by Criminal Courts in Bombay.

| Serial number. | District. | Name of accused. | Date of offence. | Child legitimate or illegitimate. | Section under which convicted. | Sentence. | In the case of legitimate child, whether Session Judge has or has not recommended reduction of sentence by the Local Government. | Sentence as modified by the Local Government. | Brief account of the case. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Bombay ... | Oojiba (woman). | 10th February 1902. | Illegitimate. | Section 302, Indian Penal Code. | Transportation for life. | The Presiding Judge recommended the accused for mercy to Government. | Rigorous imprisonment for 5 years (vide Government Resolution No. 2060, dated 22nd April 1902, J. D.). | Accused was a widow for two years and had sexual intercourse with a man named Purshotam Ruggu, the result being an illegitimate child, which she murdered by cutting its throat with a knife shortly after its birth. Information was received which led to the arrest of the accused and recovery of the body which she had concealed under some wood in her room. |
| 2 | Do. ... | Bhimabai (woman). | 3rd November 1902. | Legitimate. | Do. ... | Do. ... | Do. ... | Rigorous imprisonment for 4 years (vide Government Resolution No. 8199, dated 22nd December 1902, J. D.). | On the 3rd November 1902 the dead body of a full-time female child was found floating in the Gilder Street Tank. Bhimabai was beaten and enquiries made, but no trace of the mother of the child could be obtained. An inquest was held and a post-mortem examination made on the body, and on the evidence of the finding of the body and the result of the post-mortem examination made by the Police Surgeon, the Coroner's jury returned an open verdict. Subsequent enquiries were made by the Police and from information received the accused Bhimabai was arrested on the 4th November 1902, resulting in evidence being obtained connecting her with the female child found in the Gilder Street Tank. |
